

British Values in PSHE

Democracy	The Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs
Children learn about having a voice within their community and the importance of listening to the views of others. Democracy is a huge part of PSHE, as PSHE teaches children to give their opinions and to empathise with other people.	Children are taught the importance of being a law-abiding citizen. Children are given the opportunity to discuss various British laws and understand how they fit into society.	Children are encouraged to be open-minded and consider the thoughts and feelings of others. Children are taught how to make life choices and exercise their rights as an individual in society. PSHE enables children to feel more confident, so they make speak freely and be honest about their opinions and how they feel. Pupils are taught to reflect on the choices they make and consider their future choices carefully.	Mutual respect is taught through PSHE when children take part in group discussions and activities. Children are taught to take into account the thoughts and feelings of others, so they can speak freely. Pupils are encouraged to make other children feel valued and welcome in the group.	Children are encouraged to respect and understand the faiths and beliefs of others. As a school we promote diversity and through PSHE, we encourage children to celebrate diversity and the differences which make us individuals.